St. in reference to assisting Officer Jung and Sgt. Surf. Once on scene, Sgt. Surf and Officer Jung were speaking with Mr. Eric Wade and Ms. Yvette Toy. Sgt. Surf advised Mr. Wade and Ms. Toy that the vehicle parked in front of 1431 Irby St. was not blocking the roadway. As officers were walking off to clear the call, a gray in color vehicle pulled up on the scene. Mr. Jarvis Jung jumped out of the vehicle and was heading toward Mr. Wade in a fighting motion. Mr. Wade took off running from Mr. Jung to avoid the fight. Mr. Jung chased up behind Mr. Wade and grabbed him by his t-shirt. While Mr. Jung was holding Mr. Wade, Mr. Jung struck Mr. Wade several times before Officer Burden separated them.

While Mr. Jung was detained, Mr. Jung honked up some spit and spit in Ms. Toy's face. At that time Officer Burden placed Mr. Jung in the back of his patrol car due to both Mr. Wade and Ms. Toy wishing to pursue charges. At this time there is no further information given.

BURDEN, JAY	09/14/2022

On 09-14-2022 Wednesday at 1747 hours, I Sergeant Chris Surf responded to 1430 Irby requested by Officer S. Jung in reference to an irate subject. Ofc. Jung stated it was the same man that she has had prior issues with. Sgt. Surf was familiar with Eric Wade. Wade has a history of being very irate, not listening, over talking, and not comprehending simple facts. Wade has had issues with all his surrounding neighbors of him complaining and attempting to control the positions of the garbage cans and where people park on the city street. Wade displays many mental instabilities of outward anger and verbal language outbursts. Today Wade was complaining of a truck connected to a utility trailer parked on the opposite side of the street across from his residence. Wade was informed the truck and trailer were parked correctly. Actually the two vehicles were off in the grass to further position the vehicles off the roadway. The vehicles belonged to the landlord of Ofc. Jung where Ofc. Jung resides directly across the street from 1430 Irby. Wade was even more irate when he was informed of no crime was committed. Wade has a long history of verbal threatening abuse towards Ofc. Jung who has a pending current threatening charge against Wade.

A vehicle pulled up where Ofc. Jung's brother Jarvis Jung and their mother exited the vehicle. Jarvis attacked Wade and hit him with his hands. Ofc. J. Burden took control of him. Jarvis spit on Wade's wife Yvette Toy while Ofc. Burden was holding him back. Wade grabbed a long wooden stick and was going towards to attack Jarvis. Ofc. Jung and Sgt. Surf stopped that action by pulling their tasers out. Sgt. Surf yelled taser taser taser three times to warn Wade to drop the stick, put you're hands behind you're back and to get on the ground. Wade complied and was handcuffed. He was separated and detained to the rear seat of Ofc. Jung's unit. Ofc. Burden had handcuffed Jarvis and detained him in his unit. Sgt. Surf had handcuffed and detained Ofc. Jung's mother and put her in his unit to separate so all parties could cool down. Jarvis was arrested for assault on hitting Wade and for spitting on Wade's wife Yvette Toy. Ofc. Jung's mother was released. Wade and Toy came to GPD to sign charges. Yvette Toy had an outstanding warrant for domestic abuse and was arrested.
